Security Council

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism
Open briefing

The Chair of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism will hold an open briefing on "New initiatives to address the foreign terrorist fighters challenge", on Friday 19 June 2015, from 10:00 to 11:30, in Conference Room 1.

Mindful of the increasing threat posed by foreign terrorist fighters (FTFs), as well as the concern expressed by the Security Council regarding the international nature of terrorism crimes more generally, the Council of Europe adopted a protocol to the Convention on the Prevention of Terrorism on Tuesday, 19 May 2015. The protocol represents an effort to meet the requirements of resolution 2178 (2014), establishing new legal standards to confront the issue of FTFs. Specifically, the protocol will require countries to criminalize various actions including intentionally taking part in terrorist groups, receiving terrorism training or travelling abroad for the purpose of terrorism. Members of the Council of Europe concurrently adopted a three-year action plan dedicated to countering violent extremism both by reinforcing the legal framework and through concrete measures in the public sector.

The objective of the open briefing is to provide Member States the opportunity to benefit from the experiences of one regional organization and its Member States to meet the requirements set out in resolution 2178 (2014).

The briefing will be open to Member and Observer States, United Nations entities, intergovernmental organizations, specialized agencies and non-governmental organisations in consultative status with ECOSOC. Related information is available by clicking here.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered.

Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Room Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; Room S-0220).
